REFLECTIONS

Hello Connect Club Friends!

Summer is behind us and the beautiful, colorful fall months are ahead of us. Even though it makes me sad to see summer go, I was able to enjoy some memorable times with my family and friends this year. I was able to go boating, camping, golfing, watching car races, relaxing and enjoying the beautiful warm summer days. Even Covid-19 couldn't keep me from having amazing summer adventures!

I always want to hear from you through social media; so please feel free to share stories and photos of your journeys and destinations this year on our FSB Connect Club Facebook page! Let's flood our page with happy times spent with family and friends.

A club like ours does not thrive by chance; it takes a team of warm-hearted, energetic, fearless, and passionate members, such as yourselves, who come together and embrace the love of travel. The word "together" has never felt as important as it does now. I am so thankful for each and every one of you and look forward to the time we can come together again and be excited about what the New Year holds.

In the meantime, safe travels - and enjoy the journey no matter where it takes you!

Please call me with any questions you may have or to sign up for one of the many upcoming tours I have to offer.

COOKING WITH THE CONNECT CLUB

Stuffed Bell Peppers

Ingredients

- 6 bell peppers, any color
- 4 tablespoons olive oil, plus more for drizzling
- 8 ounces lean ground beef
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 1 onion, finely diced
- 2 cloves garlic, chopped
- 1 medium zucchini, finely diced
- 4 Roma tomatoes, seeded and finely diced
- Red pepper flakes, as needed
- 1 cup cooked long-grain and wild rice
- 1 1/2 cups grated pepper Jack cheese

Directions

- Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F.
- Cut the tops off the peppers. Remove and discard the stems, then finely chop the tops; set aside. Scoop out the seeds and as much of the membrane as you can. Place the peppers cut-side up in a baking dish just large enough to hold them upright.
- Heat 2 tablespoons of the olive oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Add the beef, season with salt and pepper and cook, breaking up the lumps, until the meat is cooked through and just beginning to brown, 8 to 10 minutes. Remove to a paper towel-lined plate to get rid of the fat.
- Wipe out the skillet and add the remaining 2 tablespoons olive oil. Add the onions and chopped peppers and cook until beginning to soften, 3 to 4 minutes. Add the garlic and zucchini and cook for another minute. Add the tomatoes and season with salt and a pinch or 2 of red pepper flakes. Cook until everything is heated through, then stir in the beef and rice. Taste and adjust the seasoning. Stir in 1 cup of the cheese.
- Fill the peppers with the rice mixture and top each with a sprinkle of the remaining 1/2 cup cheese. Pour a small amount of water into the bottom of the baking dish and drizzle the peppers with a little olive oil. Cover with foil and bake for 30 minutes. Uncover and bake until the peppers are soft and the cheese is melted and lightly browned, another 15 to 20 minutes.

Johnny Cash Prison Concert

"Folsom Prison Blues" was recorded in 1955 and was an instant hit. It was very popular among inmates who wrote to Johnny and perhaps that is why he became a very vocal advocate for Prison Reform. His first Prison Concert was at Huntsville State Prison in 1957, a full 10 years before his famous live albums at Folsom Prison (1968) and San Quentin (1969). Most people don't know those were just two of many prison concerts Johnny Cash played. Show us your conviction, and come party in the Big House.

Double PP $1,249 • Single PP $1,499

We will begin our tour with a visit to the National Museum of the United States Air Force -- the oldest and largest military aviation museum in the world -- located at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base. We will then check into the beautiful Oglebay Resort for a two night stay. In the evening we will enjoy dinner and a show by BackTraxx. This group frequently performs at the Cleveland's Rock n' Roll Hall playing the greatest hits of the 60s and 70s -- they are both a great stage show and a wonderful dance band.

Next up will be a special three hour Independence & Incarceration Tour. It is titled with a bit of humor and irony, it features Wheeling's Independence Hall where the vote to secede from Virginia was won in 1863; followed by a visit to WV's gothic-looking prison, that was once on a list of the top 10 most violent correctional facilities.

We will also spend the evening at the Old West Virginia Penitentiary, a Gothic style structure built in 1876 that once held over 2000 inmates. Unlike many of them, you may rest assured you're getting out after the show. Here is where things get really exciting! Our bus will drive through a high arched entrance under the North Guard Tower and into The Yard. We will start the evening with a Jailbird Feast, a menu of comfort food, in a prison cafeteria atmosphere, served by the usual suspects. In order to get into the spirit of the day, we encourage everyone to join in on the costumed Convict & Cop competition! There will be several prizes awarded, such as a file in a cake, handcuff keys, plus a few commutations and paroles. Prize categories will be created spontaneously by our eccentric Warden who maintains a strict, but happy discipline here at the Pen.

The excitement continues as we are presented with a re-creation of Johnny's "Outlaw Prison Concert" featuring Gray Sartin and the Tennessee Three. With a live band behind him this show will feature Johnny's "Folsom Prison Blues," "I Walk the Line," "A Boy Named Sue," "San Quentin," and "Ring of Fire," plus many other favorites! Historical Note: The song "Folsom Prison Blues" was recorded in 1955, became an instant hit and was very popular among inmates who actually wrote to Johnny. At the conclusion of your "sentence" we will return to the Oglebay Lodge for an evening of relaxation.

Did you know Johnny Cash is a member of the Rock n' Roll Hall of Fame (as well as the Country Music Hall of Fame)? We will visit the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, located on the shore of Lake Erie in downtown Cleveland where we will see the archives and learn the history of the best-known and most influential artists, producers, engineers, other notable figures who have had some major influence on the development of rock and roll.

Pricing includes: Motor coach transportation, lodging, all taxes, gratuities, baggage handling, and travel protection.

A deposit of $150.00 per person and your completed reservation form are required to reserve your space. Final payment will be due by July 13, 2021. Your deposit is fully refundable up to July 13, 2021.

Stop by or contact me at 319-294-2900 for a complete itinerary of this tour.
